- Children and Families
- Hungry and Homeless
- Sick and At Risk

“If we didn’t have a facility like Geer Adult Day Center, my mom...would be facing nursing home placement. The Day Center keeps my mom active, safe and healthy...” –Dennis, Sharon

“I have been very happy to participate in (LARC) over the last several years...these activities allow me to build on my social skills with others and work on my independence...” –Tricia, New Hartford

“If it weren’t for the Y, I might not have ever joined the swim team, made a great new group of friends, developed a love for swimming, lost 60 lbs, qualified for the Honor Roll for the first time ever and become confident enough to be Vice President of the Y Leaders Club.” –Joseph, age 16, Torrington

“Pleasant Valley Children’s Center helped me tremendously—a single mother of two, working full time....I thank the United Way from the bottom of my heart.” –Jennifer, New Hartford

“Because John was homeless, he also had difficulty with maintaining his health. With the Community Health and Wellness Center staff, he obtained needed primary health care to manage his medical problems. CHWC staff worked with John and a local apartment owner to find affordable housing for him.” –about John, Winsted

“I liked (McCall Foundation’s Prevention Education) Group because it taught me a lot about right and wrong decisions. ...Groups like this are important because they teach kids to not use drugs or drink alcohol.” –Jacob, Torrington

“I was aware that if I had tried to leave, it was a potentially fatal situation for me. I walked through the doors of the Susan B. Anthony Project scared and in tears. Because of them, I am here today.” –Christine, Winsted
